~~1.2~~ The Exchange may grant extension of time to an Issuer to comply with the minimum free float requirements if:

~~1.2.1~~ it believes that the market can operate fairly and in an orderly manner with the Issuer's existing level of free float, or

~~1.2.2~~ it receives an undertaking from:

- (a) a majority holder of shares in the Issuer holding a number of securities equivalent to at least five percent (5%) of the issued shares, or
- (b) a combination of holders of shares in the Issuer, holding a total number of securities amounting to at least five percent (5%) of the issued share capital,

~~to make available to the investing public a specific number of securities, required to restore the Issuer to the required free float level within such period as The Exchange may approve. The Issuer shall produce and submit to The Exchange for consideration and approval, an acceptable compliance plan in that regard.~~

2.0 SELF-ASSESSMENT AND SELF-REGULATION

2.1 Each Issuer shall independently, review its free float every half-year, or other reasonable time, and when there is a breach of its free float requirement, the Issuer shall:

2.1.1 Disclose to The Exchange that it is not fully compliant with the free float requirement;

2.1.2 Initiate the steps set forth in these Rules in order to comply with the free float requirement; and

2.1.3 Demonstrate its co-operation and commitment in that regard.

2.2 Each Issuer shall incorporate in its half-year financial statement filed with The Exchange its shareholding ~~pattern~~ structure, and also indicate whether or not its free float is in compliance with The Exchange's free float requirements for the Board on which it is listed.

3.0 DEALING WITH FREE FLOAT DEFICIENCIES

3.1 Where any Issuer is not compliant with the free float requirement, and The Exchange notifies such Issuer of that fact, the following shall be applicable:

3.1.1 The Issuer shall within ten (10) business days of receiving The Exchange's notification, initiate discussions with The Exchange on the Issuer's plan for restoring itself to a state of full compliance with the free float requirement.

3.1.2 Within three (3) months of receiving The Exchange's notification, the Issuer shall produce and submit to The Exchange for consideration and approval, an acceptable compliance plan setting out a program for restoring itself to ~~full~~ compliance with The Exchange's free float requirements ~~listing standards~~.

3.1.3 Where the compliance plan submitted by the Issuer is not approved by The Exchange, the Issuer shall submit an alternative acceptable compliance plan within twenty-one (21) business days of The Exchange's notification of rejection of the initial plan.

3.1.4 Upon receiving The Exchange's approval of ~~an~~ the compliance plan, the Issuer shall immediately commence implementation of the plan towards achieving ~~full~~ compliance within such period as The Exchange may approve.

- 3.15 Within ten (10) business days of receiving The Exchange's approval in 3.1.4 above ~~decision~~, the Issuer shall notify its shareholders in writing via a notice submitted through The Exchange's Issuers' Portal that if it does not achieve the required free float within the stipulated timeframe, The Exchange may suspend trading in its securities.
- 3.16 Where the Issuer fails to achieve the required minimum free float requirement by the expiration of the timeframe granted by The Exchange, trading in the Issuer's shares shall may be suspended except it obtains an extension of time to cure the free float deficiency.
- 3.2 The Exchange may grant extension of time to an Issuer to comply with the minimum free float requirements if:
- 3.2.1 it believes that the market can operate fairly and orderly with the existing level of free floats, or
- 3.2.2 it receives an undertaking from:
- (a) a majority holder of shares in the Issuer holding a number of securities equivalent to at least five percent (5%) of the issued shares, or
